

NEW MEXICO WING SCHOLARSHIPS

CADET ACTIVITIES

Contingent on funding availability, New Mexico Wing will offer annual scholarships to encourage and assist Cadets to attend Special Activities.

SCHOLARSHIPS:

Colonel Robert B. Haulenbeek, CAP, Cadet Officer School (COS) scholarship. A $350 annual scholarship established by former New Mexico Wing Commander (1988-1991) Haulenbeek, available to a Cadet Officer slotted to attend COS.

New Mexico Wing National Cadet Special Activities (NCSA) scholarship. Up to four annual $250 scholarships available to Cadets slotted to attend a NCSA.

Colonel Lloyd Sallee, CAP New Mexico Wing Soaring/Glider Encampment scholarship. A $400 annual scholarship established by former New Mexico Wing Commander (1979-1982) Sallee, available to a Cadet slotted to attend the New Mexico Soaring/Glider Encampment.

APPLICATION:

Interested Cadets submit a letter of application and resume to the Chair of the NM Wing Awards and Scholarship Committee. Cadet applicants must have been slotted to attend the designated activity or specified NCSA.

TIME LINE:

15 March Applications accepted (initial slotting announced by NHQ CAP).

1 May Application deadline

15 May Committee selections made/ funds disbursed.

SELECTION:

Applications are reviewed and selections made by the NM Wing Awards and Scholarship Committee. The Committee may choose to conduct interviews, in person or telephonically, as part of the selection process.

The committee is appointed by the New Mexico Wing Commander, with the advice of the New Mexico Wing Staff, with one member designated as Chair

SENIOR ACTIVITIES

Contingent on funding availability, New Mexico Wing will offer annual scholarships to encourage and assist Seniors to advance their Professional Development in the Civil Air Patrol.

SCHOLARSHIPS:

Lieutenant Colonels Herb and Maria Traulson, CAP, National Staff College (NSC) scholarship. A $550 annual scholarship established by former long time New Mexico Wing Transportation and Finance Officers, to assist New Mexico Seniors slotted to attend NSC.

Colonel Dennis Manzanares, CAP, Southwest Region Staff College (SWRSC) scholarship. A $200 annual scholarship established by former New Mexico Wing Commander (1995-1999) Manzanares, available to a Senior slotted to attend SWRSC.

New Mexico Wing Glider Encampment Senior Member Staff Scholarship. A $200 annual scholarship established to assist a Senior Member slotted to attend the New Mexico Wing Glider Encampment.

APPLICATION:

Interested Seniors submit a letter of application and resume to the Chair of the NM Wing Awards and Scholarship Committee. Seniors applicants must have been slotted to attend the applicable college.

TIME LINE:

15 March Applications accepted (initial slotting announced by NHQ CAP).

1 May Application deadline

15 May Committee selections made/ funds disbursed.

SELECTION:

Applications are reviewed and selections made by the NM Wing Awards and Scholarship Committee. The Committee may choose to conduct interviews, in person or telephonically, as part of the selection process.

The committee is appointed by the New Mexico Wing Commander, with the advice of the New Mexico Wing Staff, with one member designated as Chair.